

Library of Congress, Geography & Map Division
ICA Commission on the History of Cartography
ICA Commission on Atlases
ICA/IGU Commission on Toponymy

Joint Workshop:

CHARTING THE COSMOS OF CARTOGRAPHY: HISTORY – NAMES – ATLASES

WEDNESDAY, June 28, 2017

9:00 – 10:30 Arrival & Registration

10:30 – 10:45 Welcome & Opening Remarks

- Library of Congress: Dr. Paulette Hasier, Chief of Geography and Map Division
- ICA Commission History of Cartography: Imre Demhardt (UTA, USA)
- ICA Commission Atlases: Eric Losang (Institut für Länderkunde, Germany)
- ICA & IGU Commission Toponymy: Peter Jordan (Academy of Sciences, Austria)

10:45 – 11:55 Session I : Washington & Surroundings: Setting the Scene

Ed REDMOND (Library of Congress): George Washington as Map Maker

Chas LANGELAAN (Washington Map Society): The Mason-Dixon Line

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch Break (lunch at cafeteria on 6th floor, at participants' own cost)

13:00 – 14:40 Session II

Derek ALDERMAN (USA): Naming Place as Doing Violence and Justice: Racism, Memory-Work, and Why Black Toponymies Matter

Peter JORDAN (Austria): The Use of Minority Place Names on Maps of the Third Austrian Military Survey – with a regional focus on Slovenian and Croatian lands

Jana MOSER (Germany): Atlas-Maps and Atlases as Visualizations of the Global Condition – School Atlases in Germany and in the United States

14:40 – 15:10 Coffee/Tea Break

15:10 – 16:50 Session III

Lindsay BRAUN (USA): An Agent in Pretoria: Fred Jeppe, the Cartography of the Transvaal, and British Imperial Knowledge before 1900

Láslo ZENTAI (Hungary): Transformation of relief representation from hachures to contour lines on the topographic maps in Hungary

Abel HEGEDÜS (Hungary): Hungarian military mapping abroad 1919–1990

THURSDAY, June 29, 2017

9:00 – 10:00 Session IV

Cosimo PALAGIANO (Italy): The Ptolemy's Atlas maps and their amendments

Paulo DE MENEZES (Brazil): Comparative Study of the Geographical Map of Rio de Janeiro Province, 1823 - An Attempt to Dating

10:00 – 10:20 Coffee/Tea Break

10:20 – 12:00 Session V

Mark MONMONIER (USA): Motives for Patenting a Map Projection: Did Fame Trump Fortune?
Jan MOKRE (Austria): Franz Ritter von Hauslab (1798-1883) – An Austrian Representative of the Progress of Cartography in the 19th century

Imre DEMHARDT (USA): Becoming Petermann: A Tale of Five British Atlases, 1848-1855

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch Break (lunch at cafeteria on 6th floor, at participants' own cost)

13:00 – 14:30 TECHNICAL TOUR I: Map Vault of the LoC Geography & Map Division

14:40 – 15:10 Coffee/Tea Break

15:10 – 16:50 Session VI

Peter RAPER (South Africa): Reconstructing and Mapping Prehistoric Toponyms

Elri LIEBENBERG (South Africa): The Cape of Good Hope: The toponymic evolution of some of its topographical features as depicted on historical maps

Albina APRIADSA / Ari CAHYONO (Indonesia): Defining Toponyms in Indonesia's Papua: Historical Political Interests and Native Legacies

FRIDAY, June 30, 2017

9:00 – 10:00 TECHNICAL TOUR II: Treasures of the Folger Shakespeare Library

10:00 – 10:20 Coffee/Tea Break

10:20 – 12:00 Session VII

Hyo Hyun SUNG / Sejin AHN (Korea): Developing the guideline for standardization of Marine Geographical Naming: Problem Oriented Analysis

Yaïves FERLAND (Canada): Back to the Feature! Geographical Relationships among Place Names Readable on Maps

Karen COOK (USA): Drawn for the Mind's Eye: Map Metaphors in Early Modern English Literature

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch Break (lunch at cafeteria on 6th floor, at participants' own cost)

13:00 – 14:40 Session VIII

Eric LOSANG (Germany): The atlas narrative - new approaches reflecting on the development of US world atlases between the Civil War and World War I

Thomas SCHULZ (Switzerland): The Statistical Atlases of the Baltic States 1918–1940: First National Atlases of the three newly independent countries

Hussein ABDULMUTTALIB (United Arab Emirates): History of Land and Marine Atlases, Maps and Images of Dubai

14:40 – 15:10 Coffee/Tea Break

15:10 – 16:15 Session IX

Francis HARVEY (Germany): Herbert Bayer's 1953 World Geo-Graphic Atlas: A Novel Atlas at the time and still today

Igor DRECKI (New Zealand): New Zealand Government Cartography: Mapping Ross Dependency

16:15 – 16:30 Concluding Remarks